

CTG Online News

Wed, 09 Apr 2014 14:20:00 EST

Theresa Pardo to be Honored at the 2014 Rockefeller College Alumni Dinner and Awards Ceremony

Rockefeller College of Public Affairs & Policy will honor seven distinguished individuals for their outstanding contributions in the areas of political science, public administration, service to the College, leadership, and continuing professional development at its annual Alumni Dinner & Awards Ceremony on Friday, May 16 at the New York State Museum.

Among this year's honorees is Dr. Theresa Pardo who will receive the Rockefeller College Distinguished Service Award. Dr. Pardo is director of the Center for Technology in Government (CTG) at UAlbany and holds research professor appointments at the University's Rockefeller College of Public Affairs & Policy and College of Computing and Information. She is co-developer of the top-ranked program in Government Information Strategy and Management offered by the Department of Public Administration and Policy at Rockefeller College.

For more information about the 2014 Rockefeller College Alumni Dinner & Awards Ceremony where we'll be celebrating the accomplishments and contributions of Dr. Pardo and a number of other distinguished awardees, please visit www.albany.edu/rockefeller/alumniawards.